

Approved Trainings

You will need to complete either twelve or sixteen hours of training depending on the amount of grant funds that you are awarded. Contact Maribeth at maribethp@c2r2.org for more information.

What types of training will be accepted?

The 12 or 16 hours of training must be from:

1. CCR&R Training Catalog
2. www.mnstreams.org
3. Eager to Learn online classes (www.mnchildcare.org)

If the training you select is not from the CCR&R training catalog, www.mnstreams.org, or Eager to Learn online classes, it must be on the following list:

- Building Cultural Connections (BCC)
- Building Excellence and Success Training (BEST)
- Dollars and Sense
- Essential Elements from Family Child Care (MLFCCA)
- Geared for Growth
- Program for Infant Toddler Caregivers/Infant Toddler Training Intensive (PITC or ITTI)
- MN School-Age Care Alliance sponsored training (including Program Improvement and Accreditation trainings)
- NdCAD Training
- Ounce Scale
- Positive Indian Parenting
- Project EXCEPTIONAL
- Second Step (Violence Prevention)
- SEEDS of Emergent Literacy (SEEDS)
- Not By Chance: Child Care that Support School Readiness
- Work Sampling System
- Certified CPR/1st Aid
- Certified SIDS/Shaken Baby
- Certified Car Seat Training

Conferences sponsored by:

- Minnesota Association for the Education of Young Children (MnAEYC)
- Minnesota Licensed Family Child Care Association (MLFCCA)
- Minnesota Early Childhood & School Age Trainers Association (MECSATA)
- Minnesota School-Age Care Alliance (MNSACA)
- Child Care Resource & Referral Agencies (CCR&Rs)
- White Earth – Brain Development Conference

Trainings sponsored by:

- Higher Education Institutions
- Head Start
- Early Childhood Family Education
- Early Childhood Special Education
- Eager to Learn
- E-LECT
- Resources for Child Care Learning Center (online business courses)
- Other local options that meet the criteria defined by the CCR&R content standards